ist January THE QUEEN AND MR BACON Bacon's Apology

ind January THE EARL OF ESSEX Camden's Elizabeth

yrd January AN ITALIAN DUKE IN LONDON and THE Caoss IK CHEAPSIDE Foley,i 5

6th January IRISH NEWS S P Ireland, 207, iv 103

$th January THE LORD GREY AND THE EARL OF SOUTHAMPTON Camden's Ehzabeth , Wmwood's Memorials, i 292 Southampton had returned to London in September from the Lowlands campaign

i ith January THE NEW EAST INDIES COMPANY A P C , xxxi 93

itfh January BANBURY CROSS DEFACED Foley, i 8

itfh January THE EARL OF ESSEX Foley, i 7

i6ih January DEBASING THE IRISH COIN Wilbraham's Journal, P 37

Mh January DESERTERS PARDONED ^?(7,xxxi 100

zznd January DR HAYWARD AGAIN EXAMINED S P Lom^vjl 17

2$th January MASTER HOOKER'S LOST BOOKS Walton's Lift of Hooker is the authority for this well-known story Professor Sisson, however, tells me that it is a fiction, or, rather, that it was one of several contradictory tales told by the disputing parties in a case which he has discovered in the Record Office

THE QUEEN AND DR HAYWARD'S BOOK Bacon's Apology

ztth January Six GALLEYS TO BE BUILT A PC, xxri 119

ist February A WINDMILL SPLIT BY WIND Stow's Annals

yd February STRANGE EXPERIMENTS Chamberlain's Letters, p 102

$th February THE NEW EARL OF PEMBROKE AND MRS FITTON. Letters of Cecil to Carew, p 65

7*A February * RICHARD THE SECOND ' PLAYED S P Dm ’ 278 78, 85 Seeing the ’trouble that had been caused by Hayward's unhappy book, the action of Essex's followers was most significant The players, however, were txonerated , and indeed it is unlikely that the servants of the Lord Chamberlain would intentionally have made a demonstration in favour of one in disgrace at Court

THE EARL OF ESSEX AND THE COUNCIL *S P Don , 17 49

8rt February THE EARL OF ESSEX'S TREASON
Camden's Ehzabeih , Stow's Annals , S P Dom , 278 74, 75 , Sloan MSS , 718

9*A February A PROCLAMATION CONCERNING THE EARL OF ESSEX Proclamation)* 389

xoM February SIR THOMAS HOBY
SabsburyPafers, 39 Cholmky was afterwards fined £200 for his share in the rebellion